

TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP

for Dravet Day Montreal, QC - April 14th, 2018

Dravet Day 2018

Dravet Canada is holding the second of its Dravet Days on Saturday April 14th 2018, from 9am to 5pm. This is preceded by a dinner on Friday, April 13th, 2018.

It is an opportunity to meet, network and share experiences with families living with a Dravet spectrum disorder (Dravet). It is also a chance to learn more through information sharing between doctors, researchers and families. Presentations will be hosted in Montreal, at CHU Sainte-Justine.

Further details about this adult only event can be found at dravet.ca.

Travel Scholarship Details

Families are an important component of Dravet Day. Dravet Canada is delighted to be able to offer Dravet Day Travel Scholarships to assist and encourage family attendance.

Scholarship Goals:

- To improve family access to current information about Dravet.
- To facilitate discussion of Dravet between families, doctors and researchers.
- To award funds to help families attend the Dravet Day.

How to Qualify:

- Applicant must be an adult, close family member of a person living with Dravet.
- Applicant must be a resident of, and departing from a town in, Canada.

If you qualify and would like to apply for a travel scholarship to Dravet Day Montreal, please complete and return the application form to guida.clozza@dravet.ca by Feb 18th, 2018.